Volume: 94 April 2021 No.

I am not surprised at all! No in the least bit! This church family continues to wow me with your desire to serve one another, and to serve the city of Royston. I want to highlight a few examples to show you what I am talking about. In early March, a house in our community caught on fire causing the family that lived there to lose everything. I have no idea what it is like to lose all that you own in a matter of minutes, but I have to believe that it is devastating. Within a matter of hours, this church family brought gift card after gift card to help support the family. As a matter of fact, I am still getting gift cards brought in for the family. The response from you all has been so encouraging. I am beginning to understand that is just what Royston Baptist does. It’s who we are.

Another example comes in the form of cleaning up a person’s property that isn’t quite capable of doing it themselves anymore. We had a crew show up on a Saturday morning to work for hours to get the job done. No publicity. No recognition, but just serving where serving needs to be done. That’s just who we are as a church!

The last example comes in the form of appreciating some people who very rarely get appreciated. Those folks are the lunch workers at Royston Elementary. We had several folks in our church put together some baskets that included all kinds of things for these essential workers that would show them that they are appreciated. Again, no recognition, but just serving where serving needs to be done. That’s just who RBC is!

As the pastor of this church, I could not be more proud of the people that make up this family. You serve and serve, and then serve some more. You do it without question and without hesitation. If something needs to be done, I have no doubt that it will get done because of the servant-hearted people of this church. That’s just who you are. So, thank you for being awesome. It is quite the privilege to serve alongside such serving and giving people. I hope you each have a fantastic month.

Your Friend,
Pastor Matt
Matthew 5:16

From Hillary Davison, Minister of Music

Hello Church Family,

We have had a wonderful season with our Praise and Worship so far. We have learned many new songs and have added new members to our team. I am thankful for each of you who commit each week to our rehears-als and worship on Sunday morning.

As always, if you are interested in joining our praise team, please contact me!

We will re-evaluate this summer if choir will be starting again in the fall.

Blessings,

Hillary
